Helping you take your banking to new heights.

With over 25 years dedicated to Highland Bank, Holly brings a wealth of experience and relationship building to her role as Retail Manager, where she leads the recently expanded 8 branch locations. Holly has seen it all. She is an integral part of her community and contributes to the bank's success story. Her mission: forging enduring, fruitful personal connections that transcend mere banking transactions, and coaching her team to follow suit.

Among the many strengths Holly brings to her role, diversity in her career path tops the list. She's donned a personal banking hat, played an integral role in consumer loan operations, and managed several top performing branch sales teams in our northern tier communities. Her success has come from developing a deep understanding of her customers' needs, to truly support their financial progress. In her current role as Retail Manager, Holly instills a customer focused approach in her team, and reinforces Highland's commitment to its communities.

Her unwavering pursuit of excellence doesn't just benefit her customers; it elevates Highland Bank, its employees, and its customers to new heights. Her involvement in the Bank's Employee Connection Committee and leadership of the United Way fundraising campaign are testaments to her commitment to her community and her bank.

Outside her bustling career, Holly revels in quiet moments with her family and friends.
