Helping you take your banking to new heights.

Jessica Aguilar began her financial industry career at age 17 as a teller at a local credit union, igniting her passion for banking. After gaining extensive experience in various roles, she joined Highland Bank as a Universal Banker in 2021. Her dedication and expertise quickly earned her a promotion to Assistant Branch Manager, and she now manages the St. Michael and Maple Grove branches.

Clients describe Jessica as personable and engaging, connecting with them personally while serving as their financial advocate. She credits her career aspirations to supportive mentorship from exceptional managers at Highland Bank. Jessica is committed to growing in the banking industry and passionate about helping clients achieve their financial goals.

Colleagues and clients recognize Jessica for her cheerful demeanor and outstanding organizational skills. Known for her honesty and constant smile, she thrives in the dynamic environment of her managerial role. Often asked, "How do you do it?" she effectively manages responsibilities while fostering a supportive atmosphere for her team.

Outside work, Jessica treasures time with her artistic daughter, who loves crafting and painting. She also enjoys exploring new places in the city, always seeking new experiences and adventures.
