

Get to know your banking partner!

Helping you take your banking to new heights.

With a belief that every business is a story waiting to be told, Sarah Anderson is a dedicated commercial banker who goes beyond numbers to understand the person behind the business. With over 20 years of experience in the financial industry, Sarah has developed a passion for helping entrepreneurs turn their dreams into reality.

Sarah began her career in banking after receiving a Bachelor's Degree in Finance and Economics from St. Thomas University. Starting out as a Loan Operations Specialist, Sarah quickly rose through the ranks, gaining valuable experience in commercial lending and relationship management. By taking the time to learn and understand the business, she offers tailored financial solutions that meet both their immediate needs and long-term aspirations. Her ability to connect with clients on a personal level sets her apart, earning her a reputation for being not just a banker, but a trusted advisor and partner.

Outside of her professional life, Sarah is actively involved in her community. Serving as the Vice President of the Maple Grove Community Organization, she helps to organize events and enjoys getting to know the people and businesses within her community. This commitment is also reflected in her approach to banking, where she strives to not only help businesses grow but also to contribute to the overall prosperity of the community.

In her cherished free time, Sarah embodies a spirit of generosity and quality time. She delights in knitting hats for her family and extends this kindness to her community by donating them to local organizations. When she's not knitting, Sarah can often be found at the lake, surrounded by friends and family.
